

INCLUSIVE PRACTICES TRAINING SERIES:

(NEW!) Using Positive Behavioral Support and Applied Behavioral Analysis to Decrease Problem Behavior

Presented by Dr. Joseph Gentry and Ms. Carey Burgess
September 29, 2011 9am-3:30 pm

Collaborative Teaming: Ensuring Access to General Education Classrooms for Students with Significant Disabilities

Presented by Dr. Mary Falvey
November 10, 2011 9am-4pm

Adapting the General Education Curriculum: Teaching Students with Significant Disabilities in Inclusive Settings

Presented by AZTASH Leadership Cadre
January 20, 2012 9am-4pm

Linking IEP Goals to the General Education Curriculum: Teaching Students with Significant Disabilities in Inclusive Settings

Presented by Dr. Pam Hunt
March 9, 2012 9am-4pm

8th Annual Inclusive Practices Summer Institute

June 13-14, 2012 (Cost will reflect two-day conference)

Intended Audience: School personnel (teachers, therapists, administrators, paraeducators, psychologists, etc.), case managers, advocates, and families looking for ideas on how to provide inclusive education to students

Location: Deer Valley Unified School District-District Office
20402 N. 15th Avenue Phoenix, Arizona 85027

Family Members/ Students	TASH Members	Non TASH Members
$75/training	$100/training	$150/training

Conference fee includes breakfast and lunch. Registration/breakfast begins at 8:30 am for all trainings.

For registration information go to www.azwins.org

Further information regarding training content and biographies of presenters go to www.azwins.org or please contact:

Sherry Mulholland
AzWINS Coordinator
520-603-4010
mulhollandmatsutakeout@yahoo.com

Andrea O'Brien
AzWINS Coordinator
602-717-8106
andrea.m.obrien@cox.net

AZ WINS Training Series (a project of AZ TASH) is designed to provide hands-on, practical strategies for implementing inclusive schooling practices for students with moderate to severe disabilities.

